

Paxina CHILESHE

E-mail: Paxina.Chileshe@ncl.ac.uk. Tel.: +44 (0) 778 606 5225

Education and Qualifications

Jan 2003 – present	University of Newcastle Upon Tyne	PhD in Politics (Water Scarcity in Southern Africa)
2001- 2002	Saïd business School University of Oxford	MBA Rhodes scholarship
2000 – 2001	Environmental Change Institute University of Oxford	MSc Environmental Change and Management Rhodes scholarship (Thesis: Water Management in Zambia)
1995 – 1998	University of Birmingham	BEng Chemical Engineering with Minerals Engineering ZCCM scholarship
1993 – 1995	Mpelembe Secondary School	A Levels Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics

Work Experience

1998 – 2000	Zambia Consolidated Copper Mines (ZCCM) Senior Assistant Metallurgical Engineer - Σ Monitored daily operations of Cobalt plant as a quality control measure and plant performance measure - Σ Performed test work on new reagents or processes to determine benefits of introducing new reagents or processes - Σ Provided technical support to approximately 100 production staff - Σ Collaborated with other members of metallurgical team to reduce losses and increase efficiency at the Nkana Cobalt Plant
--------------------	--

Additional Information

Interests:	Sports; netball, volleyball, basketball; reading and travel
Achievements:	General Secretary University of Oxford Africa Society Best Student in Minerals Engineering, University of Birmingham International Student Representative Chemical Engineering Society (University of Birmingham) Treasurer University of Birmingham African and Caribbean Society Represented Zambia at a leadership development Camp in USA
Date of Birth:	11 February 1975